Hong Kong, surrendered in the
... of overwhelming odds.
By this time, Canada was feeling the effects of an all-out war.
Thousands of young men were overseas and hundreds who had been at Dieppe were still in British hospitals or languishing in

...Christmas, 1945, came and the war was over. Canada's repatriation scheme was functioning smoothly, but despite this many did not make it home for the big day of the year. Some, because of Canada's obligations overseas, failed to see Christmas, 1946, in Canada.

Deaths and Funerals

Election Day In Township

MISS ANNIE A. McMASTER
Funeral of Miss Annie A. Mc-Master, who died suddenly at her residence, 210 Sydenham street, was held Friday from the Lindsay funeral home. Rev. Dr. C.
E. J. Cragg, Sydenham Street United Church, officiated. Interment was in Cataraqui Cemetery.
Pall-bearers were William Guild, Cecil R. Whetham, George Baxter, Cecil Plumridge, Bert Stone and Gerris Stone.
Miss McMaster, daughter of the late Andrew McMaster and Margaret Curran, was born on Amherst Island, but spent her earlier years on Garden Island. Later she moved to Kingston. Long a member of Sydenham Street United Church, Miss McMaster supported the Woman's Auxiliary and missionary organizations though poor health prevented her active membership.
Surviving are two nephews, Lorne and Robert Veech; a great-nephew, Allan Veech, and a great-

VOTERS of Kingston Township went to the polls today to elect three councillors and two school trustees. Harvey Hawkey, reeve, and Lorne Aylesworth, deputy reeve, were re-elected by acclamation. The three members of the Kingston Township School Area Board No. 1, Albert B. Hillman, John Coates and Floyd Allen were also re-elected by acclamation.
J. Howard Keyes, Walter Holsgrove and Michael John Kelly, members of the 1950 council, and A. L. Gourley and R. Brodie Ness are candidates for the three council seats.
Norman Edwin Hancock, "Bud" E. Allen and John Newton, are candidates for the two vacancies on the Kingston Township School Area Board No. 2. niece, Lynda Veech. One brother, John, and two half-brothers, Robert and Stanness Veech predeceased her some years ago.
